

I strongly urge the commission to delay the vote on the number of radio/tv stations and other media outlets one can own until grass roots public hearings can be held throughout the country. I am very concerned and urge careful attention to the best interest of the public. We need much more public discussion of this important issue.